

abstract

COMPUTER SCIENCE/DISCRETE MATH II

Topic:

Speaker:

Affiliation:

Date:

Time/Room:

We will describe the recent proof of the 1990 Linial-Nisan conjecture. The conjecture states that bounded-depth boolean circuits cannot distinguish poly-logarithmically independent distributions from the uniform one. The talk will be almost completely self-contained.