

abstract

Presentation on the history of the Institute and the School of Mathematics

Speaker:

Affiliation:

Date:

Time/Room:

Archives staff members will give a presentation on the history of the Institute and the School of Mathematics for members of the School of Math's special year on the Univalent Foundations of Mathematics. Following the presentation, group members will have the opportunity to view a selection of documents, photographs, and artifacts from the Institute's archival collections in the Archives Center.