

abstract

MEMBERS SEMINAR

Topic:

Speaker:

Affiliation:

Date:

Time/Room:

Classical Teichmueller space parametrizes complex structures on a Riemann surface of genus $g > 1$. Recently several generalized Teichmueller spaces have been defined and studied by very different approaches. Nevertheless, some of the results are strikingly similar. In this talk I will review some aspects of Teichmueller space, introduce its generalizations and discuss their properties.