

Undirected Connectivity in $O(\log^{1.5} n)$ Space

Noam Nisan
Endre Szemerédi
Avi Wigderson

Abstract

We present a deterministic algorithm for the connectivity problem on undirected graphs that runs in $O(\log^{1.5} n)$ space. Thus, the recursive doubling technique of Savich which requires $\Theta(\log^2 n)$ space is not optimal for this problem.