

Monotone Circuits for Matching Require Linear Depth

Ran Raz
Avi Wigderson

Abstract

We prove the monotone circuits computing the perfect matching function on n -vertex graphs require $\Omega(n)$ depth. This implies an exponential gap between the depth of monotone and nonmonotone circuits.