

DO THE PA | NJ CANAL LOOPS

Two Towpath Trails Connected by Seven River Bridges

For 30 miles the towpath trails of Pennsylvania's Delaware Canal State Park and New Jersey's Delaware and Raritan Canal State Park parallel the Delaware River. This unusual proximity—combined with seven River bridges that connect the two canals—offers especially easy and interesting trips.

- Hike or bike one loop—or combine loops
- Explore river towns
- Enjoy the outdoors
- Take in the River views
- Immerse yourself in history
- Have fun!

The possibilities are endless on the PA/NJ Loops

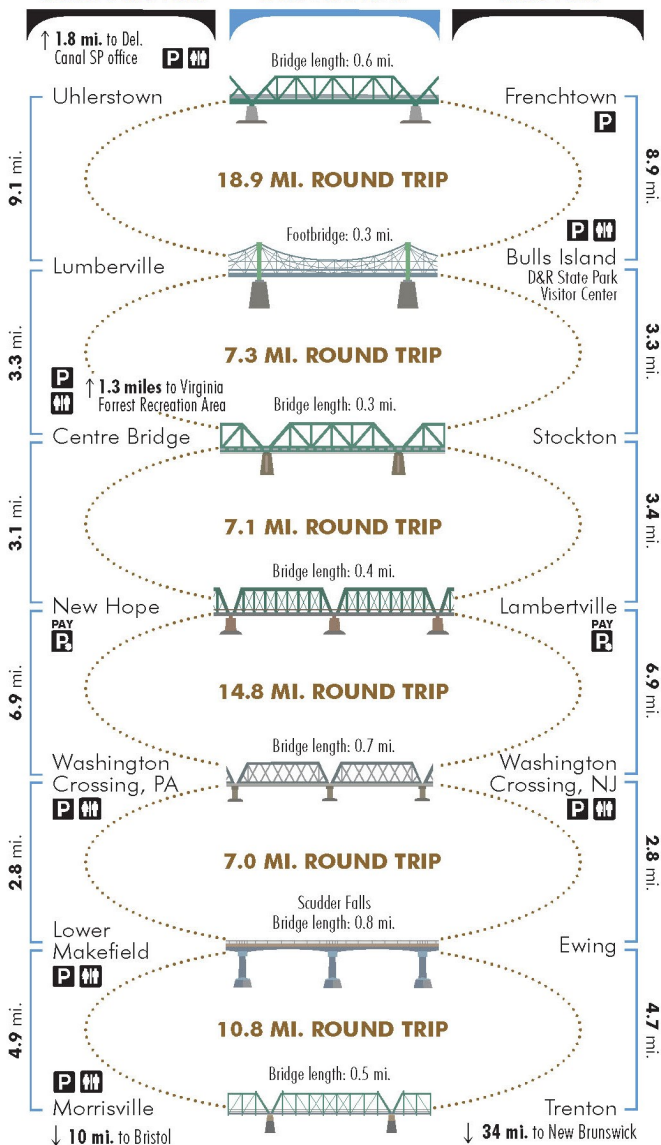

PA | NJ DELAWARE RIVER LOOP TRAILS

↑ 19 mi. to Easton and rest of D&L Trail

PA: Delaware Canal State Park

Delaware River

NJ: D&R Canal State Park

You can connect to the even more extensive Delaware Canal and Delaware and Raritan Canal towpath trails, as well as the 165-mile-long D&L Trail with its terminus in Wilkes Barre, PA.

Friends of the Delaware Canal: fodc.org

Delaware Canal State Park: visitparks.com

Delaware and Raritan Canal State Park: dandrcanal.com

Delaware and Lehigh National Heritage Corridor: delawareandlehigh.org

FRIENDS OF THE DELAWARE CANAL

PRINTED ON RECYCLED PAPER

